This really amazing extremely spacious villa with very good sized well proportioned rooms is located in a lovely quiet and tranquil spot not far from the bustling very comprehensive village of Pedreguer. Attention to detail was top of the agenda when this finca was totally refurbished and modernised in 1996 thus it is now a stunning home in which to live. The extensive grounds, which are in perfect condition, offer secluded peace and tranquility where you can relax in total peace. Down a lane automatic double gates lead you to a huge gravelled parking area with room for a large number of cars plus there is a very large 40.5m² garage/storage room. The accommodation is reached via a lovely, very large 'L' shaped covered naya with attractive sweeping arches. Stepping through the front door you are greeted with a really spacious lounge/dining room with an attractive beamed ceiling. Off from the latter is an extremely good sized kitchen with a double sink, and in the corner there is an electric oven and a four ring gas hob above which is an attractive feature extractor fan. The kitchen, which has direct access to the dining area on the naya, has a large amount of floor to ceiling storage...
